d: +61 8 7324 7850

m: +61 438 010 763

e: cpreece@kjklegal.com.au

Carmel was admitted to the Supreme Court in 1985 and has practised in most areas of general civil litigation since that time. She previously worked at both Piper Alderman and Gun & Davey.

She has specialised in workers compensation matters for 30 years, providing advice and representation to self-insured employers, registered employers and claims agents.

Carmel has also provided advice to employers on levy/premium review matters and work health and safety.

She has provided in-house advice to a number of clients relating to specific matters and/or general issues, and has acted as a consultant to WorkCover Corporation (now ReturnToWorkSA) and Employers Mutual Limited in relation to both redemption and second year review matters.

Other areas of practice have included motor vehicle law, public liability, product liability, statutory and property damage recovery claims, and medical negligence. Carmel has also provided in-house advice to a major Adelaide hospital on clinical risk management.
